Are you considering a new opportunity to showcase your array of professional skills in an interesting and flexible environment? If so, annabel is looking to engage talented individuals to join its team of hand-picked consultants.

annabel offers on-site bespoke PA and administrative services to private individuals and small businesses. Over the past 10 years, we have meticulously developed a successful blueprint based on complete discretion, diplomacy, exemplary skills and a can-do attitude whilst helping to bring order to the lives of the people we support.

We are a growing, diverse and progressive company supporting a team working predominantly (but not exclusively) in Central London and the surrounding areas and we are looking for freelance consultants who:

- bring their own diverse skill set, positivity and diplomacy to every situation
- have proven IT skills across the Microsoft Suite including MS Teams together with experience in using financial accountancy software
- are open to embracing the latest technology trends
- are able to work independently with a creative, solution-orientated approach but also willing to share their challenges and experiences with the annabel team
- display meticulous levels of accuracy and eye for detail across all forms of communication
- are pro-active, pre-emptive and calm under pressure with the ability to prioritise effectively
- are prepared to own mistakes – not to offer an excuse, just an apology and a solution
- have the capacity to build professional relationships with clients and the emotional intelligence to maintain them with an open-minded outlook
- embrace diversity and a growth mindset and are prepared to work hard to get the job done
- enjoy owning their working hours and being in control of their work life balance

Want to hear more? If so, please send a copy of your CV to help@annabel.co.uk and we will be in touch shortly thereafter.
